Proceedings of the Special General Meeting of the City Municipal Council, Bangalore, held on Monday, the 1st November 1943, at 4 P M , in the Council Chambers of the City Municipal Offices, Bangalore

Subject No 3 - RE the Election of Municipal Advocate

Mr. C N Narasinga Rao spoke as follows -

Before taking up the subject, I want to know the usual practice to send the notice calling for applications and also whether it had been advertised in some papers I find that this time the notice was sent to the Law Association on the 11th of last month and as you know, the Courts were closed for the holidays and reopened on the 16th You stated that the applications should be sent by the 18th and 17th happened to be Sunday. I do not know if sufficient publicity was given. There is an impression so far as this is concerned that the publicity that could have been given is not given I want to know in which papers it had been advertised You must be knowing that there are some members of the Bar who do not belong to the Law Association

In reply, the President informed the Member that it was advertised in the local dailies and read out the names of such papers

Then, the President informed the House that there were two candidates, viz , Messrs N Keshava Iyengar and C S Venkatas Naidu. The voting slips were next distributed amongst the Members and the voting took place by Ballot The Health Officer and the Municipal Engineer were appointed as Tellers.

After the counting was over, the President informed the House that Mr C. S Venkataswamy Naidu, was the successful Candidate, having secured 14 votes as against 12 votes secured by Mr N Keshava Iyengar
